

Extraordinary Ability U.S. Green Cards

For Those Who Stand Out

The EB-1A Extraordinary Ability Green Card is designed for individuals who have demonstrated exceptional skill in their field, such as scientists, artists, business leaders, or athletes. This visa offers a pathway to secure U.S. residency based on your sustained national or international acclaim and recognized achievements.

Benefits of the Extraordinary Ability Green Card

No Employer Requirement

Self-petition for a Green Card without needing an employer sponsor, offering greater flexibility and control over your immigration process.

Fast-Track Residency

As a priority category, the EB-1A visa provides a faster route to permanent residency, allowing you to settle in the U.S. more quickly compared to other visa categories.

Key Requirements

Evidence of Extraordinary Ability

Provide proof of sustained acclaim through a major international award or meet at least three of ten regulatory criteria (e.g., lesser-known awards, memberships in associations, authorship).

No Job Offer Required

You do not need an employer sponsor; you can self-petition.

Continued Benefit to the U.S.

Demonstrate that you will continue to work in your field and that your work benefits the U.S.
